LAKE AND ANDREWS' MULES.

Make a Play in Court House Yard, Stopping the Wheels of Justice.

Captain Lake danced a can can in the court house yard last Wednesday with Sheriff Andrews' team of broncho mules. The pair hitched to a light road wagon started to run away but Lake made a lunge and caught one by the bridle bit. The team made a circle across the lawn, paying no heed to the "keep off the grass" signs. The Police Court, which was in session was broken up by the excitement. The court, lawyers and defendants all making a rush to see the valiant Captain wrestle with the festive mules. Lake hung on till they were almost on the sidewalk on Waiannene street. Just as the Captain was shaping his vocal organs to sing, "When Shall We Three Meet Again," the mule became cocky and is to say doleful. The Captain mounted the box and pinonnetted across the lawn to the hitching post and the wheels of justice resumed their normal grind.

New Legal Firm.

W. H. Smith, former editor of the TRIBUNE, was admitted to the practice of law in all the courts of the Territory by the Supreme Court at Honolulu last week. Mr. Smith came home by the last Kinan and will at once enter the practice here. He has formed a partnership with the well known lawyer Chas. M. LeBlond, their partnership dating from May 1.
Mr. Smith adds to the strength of the Hilo bar. He has had a scholastic training that brings him into the most learned of the professions, ripe in scholarship. His practical business and editorial experience are equipments giving him additional strength. The examination he just passed before the Supreme Court was a rigorous one, but he acquitted himself, winning compliments from all the justices.

Wilder Improvements.

Wm. McKay, manager of Wilder Steamship Company at this place, has completed arrangements to have a special steamer ply between Hilo and shipping points along the Hamakua coast. He definitely announces that the Wilders will have a steamer ready to carry freight at any time it is offered in sufficient quantities. Mr. McKay is sending to Honolulu by today's mail an application for permission to erect a wharf on the Kinan wharf. This warehouse, if built will be used for storing freight destined for Hamakua points.
Another arrangement which will benefit island shippers if consummated, is that for billing freight through from Honolulu to Olua or Puna or other interior points via the Kinan and Hilo Railroad. This arrangement will be probably perfected by next week.

Death of Miss Maby.

Miss Emma Kekaulike Maby a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Maby, died at the home of her parents last Monday of typhoid malaria, after an illness of six weeks. The deceased was one of Hilo's brightest young ladies and her untimely death caused great sorrow in a large circle of friends, both of herself and family.
The funeral was held Monday afternoon from the First Foreign Church, Rev. J. A. Cruzan, preaching an appropriate sermon. The Sunday School children were present almost in a body. The floral emblems and offerings were profuse and beautiful. Burial took place in the School Street cemetery.

Hilo's New Postmaster.

W. I. Madeira the new appointee as Postmaster at this place, accompanied by Postmaster J. M. Oat of Honolulu arrived on the Kinan Wednesday and will return today. Mr. Madeira while here secured sureties for his bond. He will come back and assume charge of the office upon the arrival of his commission which will be forwarded from Washington as soon as his bond reaches that city and is approved.
The new Postmaster is a young man. He was married only a few months ago to a young lady residing in Madison Wisconsin. Mr. Madeira's name comes from his ancestors on the paternal side, who settled in Florida in 1500. On the maternal side, he is Virginian.

Pugnacious People.

Police Court Monday morning found an array of maimed and wounded defendants in the dock. A Porto Rican from Anahu who had carved a fellow countryman with a cane knife, was bound over to the Grand Jury. A Chinese from Waiakea who tried to comb a Japs hair with a garden rake was in the toils. A native who on Saturday night wanted to dissect his son with a butcher knife pleaded guilty to disorderly conduct and was given six months.

Two Japs at Waiakea fought last Sunday night. One was taken to the hospital with numerous cuts about his neck; the other is in court.

FARMER'S INSTITUTES.

Director J. G. Smith of Honolulu Forms Organizations.

Director Jared G. Smith of the Hawaii Agricultural Experiment Station met with the farmers of Hilo last Friday night and with the farmers of Olua last Monday night. The meeting in Hilo was attended by a limited number, only, but the discussions were interesting and the nucleus of a permanent organization was formed. The meeting was held in the fireman's hall. Mr. Smith made an informal address in which he outlined the purposes of his department both in the matter of Experiment Stations and Farmer's Institutes. He reviewed the work done at Honolulu and discussed a variety of new products that might be made profitable in Hawaii. He was asked numerous questions and short speeches were made by Messrs. Furneaux, J. A. Scott and others.

A committee consisting of Messrs. J. A. Scott, Chas. Furneaux and were appointed to confer with a committee to be appointed at Olua to arrange for the organization of farmer's Institutes at different places on this island.

At Olua Monday night Mr. Smith was greeted by from fifty to sixty men interested in diversified agriculture. Senator N. Russell was appointed chairman and Mr. Rackliffe, secretary. Mr. Smith made a strong address. The banana question was discussed and considerable attention was given to the "potato blight" problem. Speeches were made by Messrs. Russell, Ryan, Robinson and others. The committee appointed to confer with the Hilo Committee consists of Messrs. Zimmerman, Ryan and Russell.

Kinan Wharf.

Work on the Kinan wharf improvements are going steadily forward. Mr. Berg, the new foreman sent over from Honolulu with one donkey man and two carpenters, took charge of the work yesterday morning. Mr. Carter who was foreman until the arrival of Mr. Berg, is still working in the wharf together with four or five other Hilo men.
Captain Fitzgerald says it will take two weeks longer to finish the repairs. After this is done, the job of making the 30 foot extension will be commenced.

KINDERGARTEN AFFAIRS.

Contribution from a Lady Patron of the Hilo Organization.

In glancing over the columns of your paper from week to week we have seldom, if ever, noticed anything in regard to the work of the Hilo Free Kindergarten. We take it for granted that any resident of long standing, especially if they are parents with young children, knows of its existence. A question was asked quite recently of a member of the committee. "If the school was free?" Thinking that there might be others desiring information along this line it has seemed best to give a few items regarding the school and ask that you kindly give space for them in your paper. The school is under the supervision of the Womens' Board of Hilo which elects annually a committee to administer the affairs of the Kindergarten.

It began in a small way, has steadily grown until now it has upon its roll between 80 and 90 names of children of different nationalities and has this year sent two classes to the Union School. No one passing between the hours of 8 and 9 a. m., and again at noon but would be interested in the bright faced youngsters flocking to and from the pretty and very unique building on School St. Often as early as 7:30 in the morning the little Japanese maidens with baskets and bright colored parasols may be seen wending their way to school reminding one of the poet who said, "The feet that slowly went to school went storming out to play," for it is often noticed the eagerness with which they break away at the recess hour or at the close of the school.

The first Principal was Miss Bertha Guild of California, followed by Miss Dollie Sumner of Oakland whose place this year and next is filled by Miss Maude Cheek also of Oakland. There are two Hawaiian assistants Miss Menaloha Uhi and Sarah Mahiula. The school has been especially fortunate this year in still another helper Miss Nina Raton who plans to take up Kindergarten work and study in Honolulu the coming year. Her services have been entirely voluntary receiving no remuneration other than tuition experience gained.

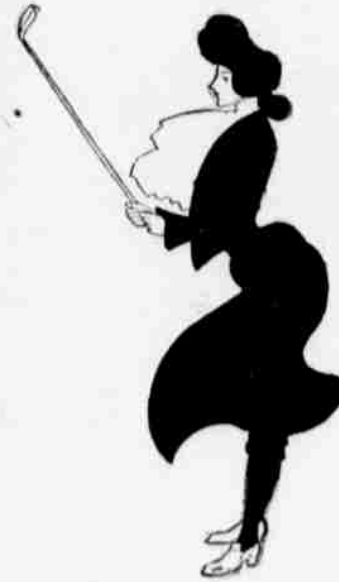

Beginning as this school does with little ones of even the age of three years helping them to form habits of neatness, occupying their young minds with correct ideas of form, size; color sound and nature study, to say nothing of the rest secured to tired mothers for a few hours each day relieving them from so much of exacting care, truly the value of this institution cannot be over estimated. It is supported entirely by voluntary contributions and is free to all children of Kindergarten age. Hilo may well be proud that she can sustain so helpful a school. The present committee consists of Mrs. John A. Scott, chairman; Mrs. Chas. Furneaux, secretary; Miss Deyo, Mrs. Lillibridge, Mrs. Willard Terry, Treas.

May Festival.

The Ladies Social Circle is planning for a grand May festival, May 24, on the Hilo Hotel lawn. The grounds will be attired befitting a carnival in honor of a May Queen. The ladies promise to prepare a feast that will not be forgotten. Booths will be arranged where articles of a fancy nature can be purchased together with various kinds of refreshments. A real fortune teller will be located on the premises. A May-pole dance will be a feature. The festival will be on Saturday afternoon in order to give all young men a chance to attend.

Her Son's Life Saved by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

"A neighbor ran in with a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy when my son was suffering with severe cramps and was given up as beyond hope by my regular physician, who stands high in his profession. After administering three doses of it, my son regained consciousness and recovered entirely within twenty-four hours," says Mrs. Mary Haller, of Mt. Crawford, Va., U. S. A. This Remedy is for sale by Hilo Drug Co.
